Classroom News

The Kinders had a great week! They learned all about the letter A (ask your child about A's superhero sound!), made beautiful leaf paintings, learned a fall poem, had school pictures outside and more! They have been enjoying recess and gym outside to make the most of the beautiful fall weather but we know colder, wetter days are ahead. I recommend sending a change of clothes in a labelled plastic grocery bag so they can change if they get wet or muddy. We will keep the clothes in our lockers at school for emergencies.

A note about the green Home Reading and Writing duotangs. Please keep them at home. Do not send them back to school. Put the poem and printing page that is sent home every week into the duotang. Help your child complete the activities. These are activities meant to extend the learning we do in class. Contact me if you have questions about this.

Please make sure the blue plastic / purple plastic folders are sent back to school each day. And all library books must be returned to school by Thursday morning for your child to check out a new book. Thanks for your attention to both of these things!

There are new pictures on our ClassDojo site for you to enjoy! Dojo is a way for me to give you a glimpse into our classroom and our learning. If you haven't signed up, please look for the invitation from the website in your email.

Happy Thanksgiving! I hope you and your family have a wonderful long weekend.
