ELEMENTS OF RISK:

Educational activity programs involve certain elements of risk. Injuries may occur while participating in these activities. The following list includes, but is not limited to, examples of the types of injury or risks which may result from participating in off-campus walking activities throughout the year
(Describe activity)

- 1. trips and falls
- 2. Exposure to outside
- 3. getting lost
- 4. Bug stings

The risk of sustaining these types of injuries result from the nature of the activity and can occur without fault of either the student, or the school board, its' employees/agents or the facility where the activity is taking place. By choosing to take part in this activity, you are accepting the risk that you/your child may be injured.

The chance of an injury occurring can be reduced by carefully following instructions at all times while engaged in the activity.

If you choose to participate in the above referenced activity, you must understand that you bear the responsibility for any injury that may occur. Foothills School Division #38 has basic student accident insurance coverage in place as described more fully in the materials that were sent home at the commencement of the school year.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT:

I HAVE READ THE ABOVE. I UNDERSTAND THAT BY PARTICIPATING IN THE ACTIVITY DESCRIBED ABOVE, I AM ASSUMING THE RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH DOING SO.
